(PLAx)

~~PROPOSED~~

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Trial Date: None Set

17
18 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

19 A. The Parties may designate as "Confidential" such documents and 20 information produced by them that they respectively believe in good 21 faith constitute, contain or reflect confidential information, and shall so 22 mark such documents. The protections conferred by this Order cover 23 not only Confidential documents and information, but also (1) any 24 information copied or extracted from Confidential documents and 25 information; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of 26 Confidential documents; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or 27 presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal Confidential 28 documents or information.

4834-3607-1765.1

[PROPOSED] PROTECTIVE ORDER

- 1 B. Designation of documents and information as Confidential shall be 2 accomplished by:
- 3 1. Placing on the first page of each document to be so designated a 4 stamp or notice in such a manner as will not interfere with the 5 legibility thereof marking the document as Confidential.
 - 6 2. Affixing a "Confidential" stamp or designation to non-paper
7 documents, such as CDs.
- 8 C. Access to Confidential documents and information shall be strictly 9 limited to:
- 10 1. The parties;
 - 11 2. Attorneys actively working on this case;
 - 12 3. Persons regularly employed or associated with the attorneys 13 actively working on the case whose assistance is required by said 14 attorneys in the preparation for trial, or at other proceedings in 15 this case;
 - 16 4. Expert witnesses and consultants retained in connection with this 17 proceeding, to the extent such disclosure is necessary for 18 preparation, trial or other proceedings in this case;
 - 19 5. The Court and its employees; and
 - 20 6. Stenographic reporters who are engaged in proceedings 21 necessarily incident to the conduct of this action.
 - 22 7. Any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting 23 personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in 24 settlement discussions.
- 25 D. Plaintiff pro se and Counsel may, to the extent necessary for the 26 prosecution or defense of this action, in good faith make Confidential 27 documents and information available to expert witnesses and 28 consultants provided that, prior to delivering Confidential documents

1 and information to the expert or consultant, counsel shall obtain from 2 the expert/consultant an undertaking in the following form signed and 3 dated by the expert/consultant:

4 “I hereby acknowledge that I am to receive documents and/or 5 information designated as Confidential pursuant to the terms of a
6 Protective Order in Civil Action 17-01463 DSF (PLA), entitled Bodnar
7 v. County of Riverside et al., pending in the United States District
8 Court for the Central District of California. I acknowledge receipt of a 9 copy of that protective order and certify that I have read it and that I
10 agree to be bound by the terms and restrictions set forth therein. I 11 further agree that any documents and information designated as 12 Confidential pursuant thereto which is delivered to me will be 13 segregated and kept by me in a safe place, and will not be made known 14 to others except in accordance with the terms of the protective order. I 15 also agree to dispose of all such Confidential documents and all 16 summaries or other documents containing knowledge or information
17 obtained therefrom in such manner as I may be instructed after 18 completing my services.”

19 E. Counsel and the parties (including Plaintiff pro se) are required to 20 advise, instruct and supervise all associates, staff and employees of 21 counsel to keep designated Confidential documents and information
22 confidential in the strictest possible fashion. Counsel and the parties 23 also agree to such treatment of the documents and information by 24 themselves, and counsel will appropriately instruct their clients as to 25 the protected nature of the documents and information produced 26 pursuant to this order and the limitations on its use and disclosure.
27 Confidential documents and information must be stored and maintained 28 by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this order.

F. If any documents or information designated as Confidential are used at deposition, the relevant portions of any such deposition transcript shall be subject to the terms of this protective order unless there has been a prior stipulation or order designating the document or information as non-confidential.

G. If any document or information which has been designated as Confidential is filed with the court prior to trial, it shall be filed in a sealed envelope along with an application for filing under seal as provided in Local Civil Rule 79-5.1, unless there has been a prior stipulation or order designating the document or information as non-confidential.

H. If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as Confidential, that party must:

1. Promptly notify in writing the designating party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order.
2. Promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this protective order. Such notification shall include a copy of this order.
3. Cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the designating party whose Confidential documents or information may be affected. If the designating party timely seeks a protective order, the party served with the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as Confidential before a determination by the court from

1 which the subpoena or order issued, unless the party has obtained
2 the designating party's permission. The designating party shall 3 bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court 4 of its Confidential documents and information and nothing in 5 these provisions should be construed as authorizing or 6 encouraging a receiving party in this action to disobey a lawful 7 directive from another court.

- 8 I. The parties may stipulate that a document or item of information
9 originally designated as Confidential is not confidential. If a party 10 contends a document or item of information should not be considered
11 Confidential, and an agreement cannot be reached, the party may apply 12 to the Court in compliance with Local Rule 37 for an order that the 13 document or information is not covered by this protective order.
- 14 J. Upon termination of this action by settlement or by judgment and 15 completion of all appellate proceedings, all documents and information 16 designated or treated as Confidential pursuant to this order shall 17 promptly (not later than 30 days following termination of the action) be 18 delivered to counsel for the Defendants for destruction, or disposed of 19 pursuant to further agreement of the parties or order of the Court.
- 20 K. The Court may modify the terms and conditions of the protective order 21 for good cause, or in the interest of justice, or on its own order at any 22 time in these proceedings. If a party believes that the provisions of this 23 protective order have been violated, the party may apply to the Court 24 for sanctions or other appropriate relief pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 37.
- 25 L. Any use of Confidential documents or information at trial shall be 26 governed by the orders of the trial judge. This order does not govern 27 the use of confidential documents or information at trial.
- 28 M. This protective order shall survive the final termination of this action

1 and the Court shall retain jurisdiction to assess monetary sanctions or 2 other relief and to resolve any dispute concerning the use of the 3 documents and information disclosed pursuant to this Protective Order.

4 IT IS SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED.
